 - Must meet the requirements set forth by the Beaver Community Fair Queen Committee as stated below.

Note: The Pennsylvania Fair Queen Program is the governing body of all county fair queen programs. Any additional rules put in place by the Beaver Community Fair Queen Program are additional to the rules set by the PA Fair Queen Program.

Behavior Policy

The Contest's governing Board shall have the sole discretion to determine whether, in its judgment, the Queen, Alternate, or contestants may continue to participate in the program, in the event that the Board determines that any statement or representation is not true and accurate, or that any action is inconsistent with the rules, standards and dignity of the Program.

The following will be considered violations of the Policy and will be grounds for immediate disqualification, dismissal and/or being banned from future Queen competitions:

- Any infractions of any Queen Contest rules.
- Smoking, drinking alcoholic beverages, chewing gum, foul language and/or public displays of affection to dates/boyfriends while wearing the crown and/or sash and representing the Queen Program.
- Engagement in any illegal, unpartisan, unethical, indecent, and/or morally questionable behavior, including but not limited to online representations on the internet such as social networking sites (including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest) – members of the Queen Committee reserve the right to view your public social media sites prior to the pageant and during the royalty's reign.
- Use of any illegal controlled dangerous substances or abusing the use of alcohol or other dangerous substances.
- Any defamation of the Queen Contest, its winners and contestants, and the Fair or the PA Fair Queen Program and their Directors and Committee Members, whether it be oral or written. This includes postings on the internet.
- Any uncooperative or unsportsmanlike conduct before, during or after the competition.
- Appearing in crown and banner at any event without an official invitation from an authorized event coordinator or event board member.

Dress Code

Wearing of the crown and/or sash is to be considered an honor and privilege. The bearer is now an ambassador representing herself, her family, her community, and Fair. While fashion styles may change, good taste does not!

Therefore responsible, appropriate and professional appearance is expected while wearing the crown and sash.

- Attire that is conducive to the specific appearance or event (i.e. business casual, formal, etc.)
- No jeans, sneakers, flip flops or boots. Alterations may be made to this jean-footwear rule only if severe weather or unsafe conditions exist and the Fair Queen committee's official coordinator or Board Member has approved an alteration consistent with the professional appearance expectation.
- It is strongly recommended that closed toe shoes be worn when in livestock areas, for safety reasons.
- No visible piercings (other than earrings) or tattoos.
- No outfit that shows cleavage.
- Dresses/skirts must be no shorter than the height of a dollar bill (approx. 2.5") from the bottom of the dress/skirt hem to the top of the knee cap.

- No clothing that advertises, promotes, or glorifies the use of alcohol, tobacco, drugs, or anything inconsistent with the dignity of the Queen Program.

Pageant Judging

The pageant consists of off-stage and on-stage portions. Contestants and a parent/guardian must report to the stage no later than 15 minutes prior to the contest start.

Off-Stage - No entry fee required.

1. Contestants will help with ribbon distribution at youth livestock shows and other activities throughout the week.
2. On Saturday morning of the fair, contestants will be interviewed by a panel of judges, utilizing your biographical information, knowledge of the fair and agriculture industries, and other questions. Computer presentations are not permitted.
3. Dress in Business Attire.

On-Stage - All activities will take place at 2pm on Saturday

1. Speech judging and crowning will take place on Saturday afternoon of fair, to be held on the stage. Dress in formal attire (i.e. prom).
2. Judging for Queen and Junior contestants will consist of:
 - Presentation of speech on "Why You Should Come To My Fair" (3 to 5 minutes)
 - Written essay of 300 words or less "What My Fair Means to My Community" (Queen Contestants Only)
 - Junior Contestants will answer a random question.
